Let's celebrate – start ticket sales for the Bike World Cup 2025 in Lenzerheide

The WHOOP UCI Mountain Bike World Cup returns to Lenzerheide from 19. to 21. September 2025 and tickets are now available. Lenzerheide will host the renowned race series for the eighth time and offer a weekend full of action, excitement and festival atmosphere - in perfect alignment with this year's motto: Let's celebrate!

The program includes the disciplines Cross-Country Short Track (XCC), Downhill (DHI) and Cross-Country Olympic (XCO). Lenzerheide is the last European stop of the WHOOP UCI Mountain Bike World Series 2025 before the series continues in North America.

Nino's last home World Cup race

A special highlight: Nino Schurter, Swiss mountain bike legend and crowd favorite, will compete in his last home World Cup race in Lenzerheide – a historic moment that no fan should miss. «The anticipation is huge that the UCI Mountain Bike World Cup is back in Lenzerheide. We are hoping for many enthusiastic bike fans who will push our Swiss athletes to top performances. We are particularly looking forward to celebrating Nino's last home World Cup race with the fans,» says OC President Christoph Müller.

The ticket store is now open. In May, ticket buyers will receive an exclusive early bird discount of up to 25%. Further information on ticket sales can be found at mtbworldcup.ch.

Bike Kingdom Lenzerheide – more than just racing

In addition to the exciting competitions, visitors can look forward to a varied supporting program with side events, concerts and culinary highlights. Lenzerheide presents itself as Bike Kingdom and offers an unforgettable experience for the whole family.

Whether cross-country or downhill, action on the trails or atmosphere in the event village: the weekend promises numerous W.O.W. moments for young and old. With side events, concerts and a wide range of restaurants, the World Cup in Lenzerheide will once again be a highlight.
